Shin Yeh Taiwanese Cuisine

Four-person exquisite set meal at a special price of TWD 4800

Traditional Taiwanese Taste as a Modern Cuisine

Shin Yeh Taiwanese Cuisine got its start in 1977 in Taipei on Shuangcheng Street and was the founding brand of the restaurant group. The natural terrain of Taiwan, being a mountainous island, provides food ingredients that are incredibly flavorful, juicy, and fresh.

Shin Yeh features the natural flavors as it composes masterpiece delicacies. When local people taste what they grew up eating, their childhood memories spring to life. In addition to small, cold side-dishes, specialty rice porridges and many home-style flavors from the street transformed into restaurant dishes, there are now Shin Yeh signature must-taste dishes such as Fried Pork Liver, Braised Pork, Dried Radish Omelette, Steamed Crab with Glutinous Rice, and after-dinner Almond Tofu, Almond Tea, and other classic Taiwanese dishes.

Over the past 40 years, Shin Yeh has grown alongside the people of Taiwan and relentlessly exerted itself in Taiwanese cuisine. It has become not only what overseas Chinese miss deeply, but also the preferred restaurant for our foreign friends visiting Taiwan.

台菜新風味

Four-person sharing set meal at a special price of TWD 2880

The New Taste Trend in Taiwanese

Shin Yeh's Shiao Ju brand was launched in 2013. We offer the young generation a mealplace for small gatherings, with Taiwanese cuisine in an atmosphere that is relaxed and trendy. Shiao Ju chefs have been in kitchens cooking Taiwanese since they were young apprentices, so they have a deep understanding of this food. The skill and technology are first-rate. Their food creations come from daily life moments of inspiration. Expressed through different sauces and techniques, the modern flavors are both traditionally authentic and creative. For example, the traditional dish of braised pork feet becomes 3 cups (of special sauces) Q (Chewy) Pig's Feet. And the Mandarin name for Preserved Egg with Green Pepper, "Ching Long Pipi Tswah" is a borrowed sound-alike of the true name in Taiwanese. A standard favorite is "Spicy Hot and Sour Soup with Rice Crackers".and special "Handmade Caramel Pudding". By design, the cuisine selection, matching of dishes, tastes and budget are all part of the experience our guests will enjoy. Friends or even three cross-generations of family can share a good time and smiles as they dine in a relaxed and comfortable environment!
